

Ford Saeks' Business Growth Accelerator Program

Special Message from Ford...

This program is designed for CEO's, franchisees, corporate executives, industry leaders, Business Owners, Entrepreneurs, and content experts that want to improve performance, monetize their expertise, develop new products, get strategic insights, increase sales and profits. All work is performed on a "non-disclosure" basis and communications are kept confidential.

Ideas, action steps and results! That's what you can expect when you contract Ford's Business Growth Accelerator Program. This program was created to help improve your marketing results from traditional and internet marketing campaigns and help you grow your business. It's designed to provide you with the tactics you'll need to dramatically improve your sales and bottom-line profits.

It starts with an intensive review of your current situation, expectations, and goals. Including your branding and digital footprint. Next, we'll discuss your branding, strategic initiatives, marketing methods, messages and target markets to define and enhance your revenue generating efforts.

Then continue with a massive action plan with considerations for your sales funnels, digital footprint, promotional and publicity efforts, including but not limited to insights and strategies for improving sales copy, websites, social media profiles, new product development, print materials, advertising strategies, and more... You'll benefit from Ford's vast expertise in new product development, information marketing, internet marketing and social influence tactics.

He'll help you strategically (how to develop new value-propositions, find new distribution channels, attract more leads, improve your conversions, etc.), and tactically (what to do first, defining value propositions, lead funnels, critiquing sales copy, list building secrets, effective website design, selling systems, etc.).

You get:
