

Ford Saeks' Business Growth Accelerator Program

Ideas, action steps and results! That's what you can expect when you join Ford's Business Growth Accelerator Program. This program was created to help improve your marketing results from direct and internet marketing campaigns and help you grow your business. It's designed to provide you with the tactics and tools you'll need to dramatically improve your sales and bottom-line profits.

It starts with an intensive review of your current situation, expectations, and goals. Next we'll discuss your marketing methods, messages and target markets to enhance your revenue model. Then continue with a massive action plan with considerations for your advertising and publicity efforts, including enhancing sales copy, websites, print materials, advertising strategies, and more... You'll benefit from Ford's vast expertise in product development, direct and internet marketing tactics.

He'll help you strategically (how to develop new products, find new distribution channels, attract more leads, improve your conversions, etc.), and tactically (what to do first, critiquing sales copy, list building secrets, effective website design, selling systems, etc.).

You get:

- Three months of access to Ford for personalized consultations, typically conducted in a phone conference each week;
